

Source Sheet

Employee performance and talent management encompasses a wide variety of trends and issues that Halogen executives and our customers can act speak with media about, in addition to general corporate information. Specific areas of expertise include:

Trends/Issues

- Managing generational differences
- Employee coaching best practices
- Industry-specific talent management challenges and best practices (healthcare, financial services and professional services)
- Managing through the downturn
- Creating a high performance workforce

HR Best Practices

- Employee appraisals including 360 multi-raters
- Pay for performance strategies and compensation issues
- Succession planning best practices including talent pools
- Performance-based learning management
- Managing generational differences
- Talent Management Best Practices for Healthcare
- Talent Management Best Practices for Professional Services
- Talent Management Best Practices for Manufacturing

Technology

- Talent management market and technology landscape
- SaaS and On-Premise Deployment
- User-driven design

To arrange to speak with a Halogen executive, or for more information please contact:

Maggie Patterson

PR Consultant - Halogen Software

613-989-1866 (office)

613-614-2053 (mobile)

mpatterson@ripnet.com